

(Attached Table 2) Main purposes of use expected in the normal business of the health insurance association

1. Purpose of use required for insurance benefits for insured persons

【Cases related to internal use of health insurance association】

- Implementation of insurance benefits and additional benefits

【Cases involving the provision of information to other businesses】

- Automatic payment of high-cost medical expenses and partial refunds
- Outsourcing for translation of overseas medical expenses
- Reimbursement to non-life insurance company for third party acts
- Health insurance federation's high-cost medical benefit consortium

2. Purpose of use required for collecting insurance premiums

【Cases related to internal use of health insurance association】

- Confirmation of insured qualification and understanding of standard monthly salary and standard bonus
- Collection of health insurance premiums
- Dependent certification
- Issuance of health insurance card

【Cases associated with providing information to other businesses】

- Outsourcing of data processing such as insured qualifications

3. Purpose of use required for health activities

【Cases related to internal use of health insurance association】

- Health checkups, health guidance and health consultations for maintaining and improving health
- Operation of health promotion facilities (recreation centers)

【Cases involving the provision of information to other businesses】

- Consignment to an industrial physician for health guidance and health consultation
- Outsourcing of health checkups to health checkup institutions
- Entrustment of operation of health insurance facility (recreation center)
- Provision of health checkup results to businesses
- Notification of medical expenses to the insured

4. Purpose of use required for examination and payment of medical fees】

【Cases related to internal use of health insurance association】

- Inspection and examination of RECEIPT

【Cases involving the provision of information to other businesses】

- Entrustment of inspection / examination of the contents of the RECEIPT data
- Punch input for computer processing of RECEIPT data, entrustment of image capture processing

5. Purpose of use necessary for stabilizing the operation of the health insurance association

【Cases related to internal use of health insurance association】

- Medical expense analysis / disease analysis

【Cases involving the provision of information to other businesses】

- Outsourcing of data processing related to medical expense analysis and medical expense notification

6. Others

【Cases related to internal use of health insurance association】

- Basic data for maintaining and improving the management and operation of the health insurance association

【Cases involving the provision of information to other businesses】

- Consultation or notification to insurance companies / medical institutions in third-party reimbursement work

7. Specific personal information

Purpose of use in information collaboration with other medical insurers or administrative agencies (hereinafter referred to as "other institutions") specified in Article 19-7 of the Number Act

【When receiving information from other organizations to execute the paperwork of the association】

- Injury and illness allowance, benefit information related to insurance benefit examination work for high medical expenses
- Taxation / tax exemption information at other institutions related to the judgment of the burden classification of elderly beneficiaries
- Qualification information at other institutions related to insured qualification acquisition office work
- Taxation / tax exemption related to dependent certification work, resident's card related information

【When the union shares information for the execution of office work of other organizations】

- Information related to insurance benefits in association related to high-cost medical expenses, childbirth, funeral-related benefits, and benefits of other institutions
- Qualification acquisition, dependent certification, qualification acquisition in the union related to qualification confirmation work of other institutions, dependent qualification related information